

Dear Sir/ Madam

My simple thought is an expectation that built development should minimize the use of cement based products (which have a substantial carbon footprint) in favour of sustainable timber-based methods.

Timber framed houses with cosmetic concrete block-work walls makes little sense.

Regards

Stewart Roberts

Stewart Roberts | Countryside Officer | Angus Council | Planning & Communities | Angus House | Orchardbank Business Park | Forfar | DD8 1AN | Tel: 01307 492435